

Akini O. Morris – BBA Accounting

Akini Morris graduated from the College of The Bahamas in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He graduated with distinction, and was the recipient of the School of Business, Ernst & Young, and Bahamas Institute of Chartered Accountants awards. In addition, he was a President's Award finalist. Akini attended Nassau Christian Academy from 2006 to 2011, forgoing his senior year of high school after his early BGSCE passes, to initiate his tertiary education pursuit at the College of The Bahamas. During his tenure at the College of The Bahamas, Akini served as a mathematics peer tutor, and was an avid member of the college's business club and the Institute of Internal Auditors; he filled the treasurer and Director of Education posts in those clubs, respectively. Presently, Akini is engaged in his studies for the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination, which he aims to have successfully completed by August 2016, subsequent to which, he hopes to secure employment at a Big 4 accounting firm in The Bahamas or overseas. Beyond this, Akini desires, in the near future, to study actuarial science, to pair his accountancy qualifications with an actuarial designation.

Dashanique E. A. Moss – BBA Accounting

Dashanique graduated from the College of The Bahamas in 2015 with a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting with Distinction and is currently employed as a Reconciliation Specialists at CFAL.

While at the College of The Bahamas, Dashanique has been on the Dean's/President's List and has played an active role in tutoring her fellow peers whenever she was needed. She was also the recipient of the Chamber of Commerce Award for Academic Excellence in May 2015. Dashanique graduated from Crooked Island High as Valedictorian and Head Girl in 2009, and was also the recipient of the Seahorse Shores Scholarship Award. During her time as a student of Crooked Island High, she has held several leadership positions including President of the Girl's Club and Sports House and has always been a well-rounded student. She is currently reviewing to sit the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Exam (CPA), after which she intends to pursue International Business at the Graduate level.

Dava A.B. Bullard - BBA Accounting (with Spanish)

Dava graduated with the 2015 Class of the College of The Bahamas (COB) with a BBA in Accounting (Distinction) and a minor in Spanish. During her matriculation at COB, Dava was on the Dean's/ President's List, served as Secretary of the Rotaract Club of COB and was the 2013-2014 Rotaractor of the year. She also served as Secretary of CHMI Toastmasters 969479, Student Vice President of Sigma Alpha Pi Honour Society COB and received the Society's Excellence in Service to Students Award and National Engaged Leader Award. She became a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc., a member of four other societies/clubs and an attendee of the BICA YACHT Club. In 2009, Dava graduated from the St. Joseph's Convent Secondary School (SJC) in Saint Lucia with distinction, receiving the Business, the Economic and the Outstanding Student awards. She was Public Relations Officer of SJC Young Leaders Club and Red Cross (Treasurer). Dava says this quote encourages her to maintain a balance in life: "Try not to become a man of success but rather try to become a man of value"- Albert Einstein. Dava now is employed with Ernst & Young Ltd. as a Staff Accountant, and currently is studying for the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Exam (CPA). She intends to pursue graduate studies in International Relations and Economics, to improve her Spanish fluency (immersion program) and to learn French.

Felicia Leann Albury – BBA Marketing

Felicia Albury, commonly known by her middle name Leann, attained her Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing (with Distinction) at The College of The Bahamas. She was awarded the Bahamas Ferries Marketing Award for achieving the highest GPA in the Marketing program. During her tenure at The College, she was an active member in The Rotaract Club and Golden Key, and also served as the 2013-2014 President of The National Society of Leadership and Success. Leann moved to Nassau in 2010 in pursuit of higher education after graduating from Long Bay School as Valedictorian in Abaco where she was born and raised. Her incessant drive for personal development led her to her current endeavour to become a certified Events and Wedding Planner. By the age of 35, Leann envisions being the Founder and CEO of The Black Box Marketing Group while also planning destination weddings for couples wishing to solidify their union in paradise.

Robbyn N. Thompson – BBA Economics

In May 2015, Robbyn graduated from the College of The Bahamas (COB) with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Economics, with distinction. She was also the recipient of the Dienkabe Kureyang Memorial Award for outstanding achievement in Economics. During her years in college, she performed integral roles within the School of Business. In particular, she served as the 2014-2015 Senator for the School of Business under the College of The Bahamas Union of Students (COBUS) and represented the Economic Society at numerous presentations and forums. Robbyn was also one of the contributors to the National Development Plan (Phase 1), as recommended by one of her lecturers. In her sophomore year at COB, at the age of 18, Robbyn developed a passion for hair extensions which led to the beginning of her unique line of Virgin

Remy Extensions: Good Hair. Recently, she was nominated for the National Youth Award for Entrepreneurship. Robbyn is a proud alumna of St. Augustine's College (2011) where she honed her leadership and interpersonal skills, serving as Vice President of the Student Council body, President of the Speech and Debate Club and Captain of the Leonard House. Robbyn currently is working on expanding her brand, along with pursuing her Masters degree in September 2016, at the London School of Economics and Political Science. Keeping God first and everything else after, she remains steadfast to her belief that "she who kneels before God can stand before anyone".

Robert G. Nicolas – BBA Economics & Finance

Robert graduated from the College of The Bahamas in 2015 with a Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Finance. He was the recipient of the Livingstone Evans Memorial Award for Economics and Finance and the CFA Society of The Bahamas' Top Student in Finance Award. He is passionate about the development of others and found the best way for him to serve his peers was to become a tutor. He acted in this capacity full time for one year in the College's peer tutoring program, then part time in his junior and senior years after he began professional employment. He earned a reputation for his ability to help students grasp the material, patience and willingness to accommodate the scheduling demands of students. He hopes to return to the classroom in the future as a lecturer. Robert currently is employed as an Assistant Trust Officer at Cititrust (Bahamas) Limited. He intends to return to University in the spring to continue studies in French ahead of beginning his studies for the Series 7.